As this is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the "M", we feel that a little past history about the yearbook would be fitting. We received a very interesting letter from the first editor, part of which gives basic facts about the first "M". The following is an excerpt from this letter.

"Perhaps you would like to know how the Moline annual received the name 'M'. It's a story I've never told before. As it was the first issue, we had no one to ask how it had been done the year before. 'The Imp', derived from the fact that Moline was well known for her implement manufacturing, was suggested for a name. We thought it was a clever name, so when a representative of one of the engraving houses asked us what the name was to be, we said 'The Imp.' He misunderstood and thought it was 'The M,' congratulating us on such a splendid choice."

For every good thing in this world there has been some sacrifice and human effort. Someone has been willing to slave and take responsibilities to insure the success of the future.

The former editors, business managers, and the rest of the staffs, who by the sacrifice of time, labor, and talents have built this book on a

We, the class of 1938, wish to thank the former editors and business managers and show our appreciation for their effort and worry by dedicating the twenty-fifth annual yearbook, the 1938 "M", to them.

A superior example of just how a high school should be directed is given by Mr. Crakes at Moline High. Outstanding in every detail and capable to the "nth" degree, he keeps 1,200 students under schedule. Even after they graduate he secures jobs for them and keeps well posted on their activities and accomplishments.

Mr. Lain has decided he hasn't enough to do with only the visual education, speech and vocational departments, assistant principal, senior play, and golf team to keep him busy, so he has gone into politics. We don't like to wish him bad luck, but he certainly would be missed around here and it will be awfully hard to find one capable of taking his place.

If the history of the High School or the "M" were to be told by any one man, Mr. Nutting would be the one to do it. A marvelous memory, and a magnetic manner, characterize this mentor of Moline High.

Popular with the public as well as the pupils, he is a leader in the community and school system alike.

"Since 1914 some member of my family has been buying the yearbooks from Moline High. Once I found upon its pages the faces of my classmates; now I cherish it as the record of those with whom it is my privilege to work."

BARBARA GARST.

"If I cherish my copies of the "M" dating from 1920 down to the present time, how much more the students whose class activities are recorded therein and whose friends' faces adorn the pages will appreciate theirs as the years go by."

ELLA COCKRELL.

"No student should ever sever connections with his school without having the year book as a permanent record of the activities, as an album of familiar faces and as a memento of the days when he was a part of that institution."

Literary Association

Perhaps the most important student administrative body in the school is the Literary Association. This year the president was Curt Johnson, the vice-president, Dawn Vermuelen, and the secretary-treasurer, Emily Ann Harper. The Board of Control consisted of three members from the Senior class due to a tie in the vote, and two from each of the other classes. They were: Elaine Allmendinger, Luman Althaus, Eugene Krone, Sara Vinar, Dan Schuffman, Betty Holtz, and Eugene Hallstrom.

Each year the Association selects the three leaders of the Line O' Type staff and also sponsor a Literary Banquet for members of the L.O.T. and "M" staffs and all students who were on forensic teams.

Second chronologically in regard to the field of forensics comes Boys' Oratory. Here's where the masculine stars shine. Not to let the girls out-do any of them, the boys really demonstrated that they have plenty of talent. A total of eight boys tried out for the team. The eight being: Allen Gordon, Leo Henrikson, Robert Eagle, Russell Johnson, Robert Coddington, Carl Peterson, Murner Thor, and William Harper.

In the local contest Leo Henrikson, whose selection was "The Meaning of American Citizen," won first place; Bob Eagle, who gave "The Big Parade," placed second, and Russell Johnson, who presented "The Man Nobody Knows," placed third.

In the triangular meet the boys did not do so well against Rock Island, but Bob Eagle took a unanimous first place against East Moline.

Leo Henrikson was selected to represent Moline High in the Northwest Conference meet. Unfortunately he didn't fare so well as had hoped, tying for fifth place. With Eagle, Coddington, Peterson and Harper returning next year, the team should continue their excellent work.

The forensic side of our school life was opened by the Girls' Declamation Contest. The team to represent Moline was selected through two try-outs: first, by a preliminary contest held before two teachers, presiding as judges, and second, by the local contest, consisting of ten girls, held in our own auditorium. In the local contest, Dawn Vermuelen was awarded first place, Marjorie Batchelor, second place, and Myrna Fischer, third place. Others who also succeeded in making the team were, Mary Dunsmore, Maybelle Krantz, and Charmian Bimson. The team was not so successful in the triangular contest, losing to both Rock Island and East Moline. It did place second at Rock Island, however. Dawn Vermuelen was chosen to be our representative in the Northwest Conference Contest held in Rock Island's new auditorium. "The Boor" was her selection. Rock Island's record for winning the Northwest Conference meets, was finally broken, so to speak, as we tied their representative for first place.

Dawn's presentation of her piece to the student body at roll call received a great ovation.

Debate was the most talked about of the extra-curricular activities this year. And the team did all right for themselves too. It drew large and eager audiences. Most of the Civics classes were urged to attend but even other enthusiasts turned out in grand style.

The first affirmative team consisted of Leo Henrikson and Bob Eagle. Allen Gordon and Bob Coddington were members of the first negative team. Helen Markovitch and Carl Peterson made up the second affirmative team; Pam Getz and Maybelle Krantz, the second negative team.

We won nineteen debates this year and lost eleven. Out of these the affirmative team won twelve and the negative seven.

We placed second in the Northwest Conference Meet, where we defeated Rock Island twice, East Moline twice, and Galesburg twice, but were defeated by Kewanee once and by Monmouth twice.

This year, for the first time, we entered the District Tournament of the State Debate League. Although we didn't fare so well, it afforded excellent practice and experience. We will try our luck again next year with all of the members returning except Leo and Allen.

Extemporaneous Speaking

Of the four forensic activities, extemporaneous speaking is probably the hardest on the nerves. The participants must be prepared to speak on ten or more different subjects that deal chiefly with government and state problems. After the contestant draws his topic, he retires to a room and is left alone for an hour to prepare his speech. When he is called he must be prepared to do his best.

After the try-outs the team consisted of Leo Henrikson, Bob Eagle, Bob Coddington and Pam Getz. In the local contest which took place in our own auditorium Leo placed first, Bob Eagle second, and Bob Coddington third.

We lost out in our contest with Rock Island; however, Bob Eagle came in second.

On Tuesday evening, April 19th, Bob Eagle represented Moline in the Northwest Conference Meet at Galesburg High School. There he tied Rock Island for first place with Kewanee coming in third. "The Reorganization Bill," was his topic.

Bob will be back for competition next year which gives us a very promising and hopeful out-look.

It is difficult for the staff of a yearbook to say anything about that book in the publication itself. However, if some facts are made known the book may be appreciated more fully.

Some of the new features tried by this year's staff are more or less experiments. In the first place all the faculty pictures were taken by students, instead of using the same antiquated shots which have appeared from year to year. Angle views of the Juniors proved to be a variety. Pictures of the team captains and group pictures of the class officers, were new. Snaps on the organization pages were used for action along with color on every page. We hope you like our experimentation and feel as we do that it adds to the general appearance of the book.

Many improvements in the Line O' Type's construction made this year's paper one of the best. Having an abundance of funds and an editor fresh from the influence of a journalism class, the face of the paper was somewhat changed with wood cuts and photographs by some of the more talented students.

The gossip column, under the name of "The Mop" by Moppet, continued to get the dirt and print it. A new sports' column, "From the Bench", presented attractively, flashes from the world of sports in Moline High.

To have an escort for the "M" Queen, the Line O' Type sponsored a contest for the most popular boy. It is hoped this feature will continue and become a tradition at Moline High School.

"Fly Away Home"

Although given on April 1, the senior play was no April Fool performance.

The plot of the play deals with the Masters family. After a twelve-year separation from his wife and children, Mr. Masters comes home to find his children very changed and his wife about to marry a radical college professor.

After an elopement by Johnny and Linda, the Masters children begin to realize what a great fellow their father really is. Mrs. Masters, too, finds that it is after all the best thing to go back to her husband. Armand, the professor, sees what a great cost the children would be, and he retires from the scene. And so in the end the Masters family is happily reunited.

Mr. Dolph Lain coached the play with his usual ease and confidence which always makes each senior play a success.

"So This Is London"

Revealing the English idea of Americans and portraying our idea of the English, So This Is London was a very enjoyable farce.

Elinor Beauchamp of London and Junior Draper of the United States have fallen in love while aboard ship coming to England. The two wish to be married, but due to family opposition the plan seems impossible. The Beauchamps think the Americans are gum-chewing savages with Niagara Falls as their only piece of scenery. The Drapers have a version of the English as stiff-shirts, unemotional with a heavy London accent.

The two families meet at Lady Amy Duckworth's, who is trying to help Junior and Elinor. The two families' identity is finally made known and the business is successfully transacted. The Drapers and the Beauchamps have found each other likeable and friendly. Consent is given to the marriage of Elinor and Junior.

"Treasure Island"

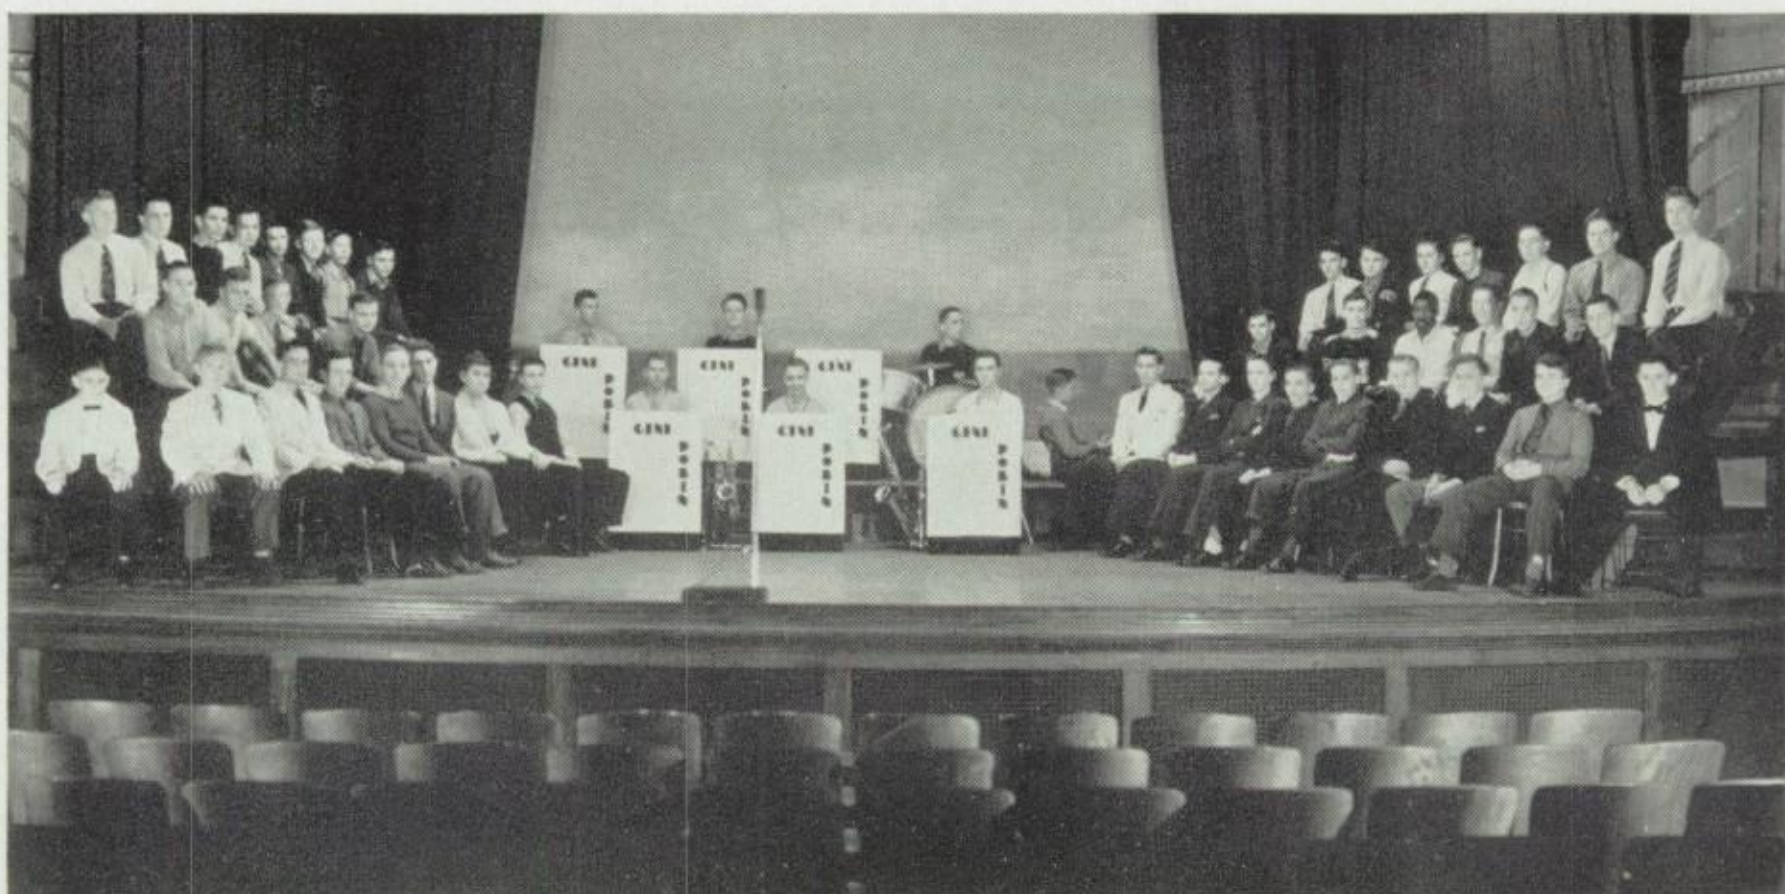

Streamlined

One would never think that seventy beautiful senior girls could make such a rough group of bloody pirates as they presented in Treasure Island, their annual A.D.C. production.

Capably directed by Miss Barbara Garst, the play was based on Robert Louis Stevenson's famous story of the sea. However, the A. D. C. version was a stream-lined one with the girls dressed in snappy pirate costumes.

The property and stage committees worked hard, and their efforts were climaxed in the last scene, a tropical view with palms and rocky shore and the moonlit sea in the background.

The roles of Long John Silver, and Ben Gunn were portrayed remarkably well by Dawn Vermuelen and Rose Schuffman.

"Fellowship Presents . . ."

The class of 1938 seems to be quite a dissatisfied generation. The girls tried to be men in their A.D.C. show, and the boys tried to be and were women in the Fellowship production. Those elegantly-dressed, nice-figured, flirting women were really Fellowship boys.

A great deal of talent and originality was shown in the production of "Fellowship Presents." Part I included five playlets, most of them featuring beautiful girls (Fellowship boys!). The biggest hit was probably the Fellowship version of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs", Snow White being "Flip" Anders and the prince, witch, and dwarfs husky football players.

Part II presented current popular songs by Fellowship boys and Gene-Robin's orchestra. Also, the Swansons, Eugene and Dwight, tapped several good numbers.

"The Intimate Strangers"

Beautiful and blonde Isabel Stewart leads William Ames, a handsome lawyer, to believe she is much older than she really is by discussing long-past history and presenting her nieces, one nineteen and the other sixty. She also builds herself up as an old-fashioned girl knowing that he preferred that type to the modern girl. It is all really a test to see how much truth there is in his hurried marriage proposal. But it is almost spoiled by flirtatious Florence, who abandons Johnnie White, her old stand-by, to vamp Mr. Ames, "an older man".

The climax comes when Florence sees Johnnie making love to Isabel. She goes back to Johnnie as her love-making has not succeeded and his attentions have cooled. Isabel confesses to William Ames her little test, tells of his love for her and the play ends happily.

Operetta

Striking color, beautiful music, and adventuresome plot made this year's operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," one of the most successful for many seasons.

Through an error in hearing, Ruth had apprenticed Frederick to a pirate band. When he became twenty-one Frederick decided to seek a different profession, but fell in love with Mabel who happened along with her twenty sisters. The pirates returned from the sea, captured the maidens and proposed marriage.

Frederick attempted to break the pirate band but was unsuccessful when he found that by his indenture papers he had to be one of them until his twenty-first birthday having been born on the 29th of February during leap year.

The band was finally broken and the pirates turned out to be English noblemen who married the daughters and "lived happily ever after."

Coaching Staff

Coach Senneff, the little man with the decrepit hat, has been the coaching dean at Moline for eighteen years. Producing teams is the business of "Coach", but he always demands clean playing and true sportsmanship. Able assistants are Roger Potter, Bill Bean and Bill Lane. Mr. Potter is a quiet fellow who is willing to take a "back seat", and Mr. Bean is the beaming Hoosier who turns the big Swedes into first-rate linesmen. Serving as "talent scout", intramural and sophomore football coach is bombastic Shady Lane, and, in self-enforced background, stands the man with the soft voice and the sharp eye, Mr. Holmgren, Moline's athletic manager par-excellence.

Golf

With the most successful team in several years, the Maroon Golfers clinaxed the '37 campaign by capturing the Northwest Conference title. Individual honors were won by Stan Trapkus, runner-up in the Arsenal Tri-City classic, who had low score in the Northwest meet with a 36-hole aggregate of 148, and Bob Massey, who won Seventh Place in the state meet at Urbana.

Coach Dolph Lain is looking forward to a strong team with Stan Trapkus, Whitey Martens, and Gail Roberts as his nucleus.

Boys' Tennis

Handicapped by having the more talented members engaged in football, the tennis team did not fare so well in the fall season. In a dual meet with Rock Island Moline came out victorious but none of the team members placed in either the quad-city or the Northwest Conference meet. From the twelve candidates who reported the following seven were victorious: Dean Wessel, Jack Rahn, Max Knees, Bill Holzrichter, Bill Carlson, Howard Lincoln, and Winston Day. Another important member — especially at practice—was Fritz (see picture), the mascot and ball-chaser.

MOLINE 33—CLINTON 0

The Moline gridders picked up the football season where they left off two years ago as they won their tenth consecutive game and opening tilt of the season when they smothered the River Kings 33-0. Captain Ed Lindley and Flip Anders gave a preview of the season's proceedings when they both scored in the first quarter.

DeVILBISS 14—MOLINE 6

Too much power in the driving DeVilbiss line spelled defeat for the Moline gridders at the Page Stadium in Toledo, Ohio. In addition to swarming all over the Moline backfield on nearly every play, they opened holes for the shifty Dick Welch to romp through time and again. The lone Plow tally came in the second period when Lindley heaved the oval from his own 12 to Anders in midfield and the state dash champion outdistanced opposing players to the goal line. Twenty-three Moliners made the 500 mile trip which was spiced by the Northwestern-Purdue game in Evanston on the return voyage.

MOLINE 54—ROCK ISLAND 0

Unleashing one of the greatest scoring sprees in recent years, the Maroon and White walloped a light Rock Island eleven 54-0 to chalk up their first claim to the quad-city championship and to further impress observers that they were the team to beat in the N. W. C. trophy chase. Modesty prevents us from commenting about the game, well—anyway, the Islanders tried hard.

Football

MOLINE 32—MONMOUTH 0

The broiling sun encouraged listless football, but the powerful Maroons easily disposed of the Little Scots 32-0 at the latter's field. With the exception of Van Tuyl, the Zipper line was too big and slow to stop the fleet Moliners. Scorers were Lindley (2), Kolifitis (2), and Anders.

MOLINE 14—EAST MOLINE 6

The black cannonball, Flip Anders, turned apparent defeat into a 14-6 victory for the Senneffmen by leading a sensational second half rally to completely outplay a fighting East Moline aggregation at Browning Field. Anders scored both touchdowns on sprints of 66 and 25 yards besides piling up most of the Moline yardage in midfield. The Orange and Black grabbed an early lead with two field goals by Stan Sosnoski. The win clinched the N.W.C. championship for the third consecutive time since the loop was organized in 1935.

MOLINE 32—ROOSEVELT 7

The powerful Maroons proved to be the more versatile under adverse weather conditions when they brushed Roosevelt high of Chicago aside 32-7 before a record gathering of "M" Men who numbered nearly 200. A strong western wind and the bitterly cold weather handicapped both teams, and it became so dark in the third quarter that the lights had to be turned on in order that the game might be completed. Nevertheless the Senneffmen's superiority was in evidence to the final minute of play.

MOLINE 19—GALESBURG 0

Galesburg was the second Northwest conference foe to bite the dust without even making an impression in the scoring column. Once again the reserves took over for Moline in the last frame. Lindley copped the scoring honors.

MOLINE 41—KEWANEE 0

Moline scored the first time they handled the ball and forgot to quit, setting the pace with 21 points in the initial stanza. The 2,000 chilled fans saw a variety of football such as Ed Lindley returning a punt 72 yards for a touchdown, Anders rocketing through center for 53 yards and another marker, Johnny Kolifitis reeling off 34 yards to ring the bell, and Bob Lindahl downing a punt twice, one the Riveter's one yard line.

MOLINE 13—DAVENPORT 0

A crowd of 7,000 fans, the largest throng in the history of Browning Field, witnessed the gridiron finale in which Moline annexed the quad-city football crown by outplaying Davenport. Bob Jaeger, stocky 190 pound fullback, proved to be the surprise star of the Turkey Day tilt as he accounted for half of Moline's total yardage. With one second left to play he climaxed his brilliant one-man line crashing performance by scoring from the 4 yard line. Moline did not substitute once, and it can be truthfully said that Coach Senneff had 11 stars of the first magnitude on the field to conquer the traditional rivals.

Sophomore Football

Second Row: George Bollart, Edsel Gustafson, Arne Stromberg, Ross Wallace, Bill Crane.
Third Row: Bill Miller, Albert Van Acker, Manual Alba, Ray Jump.
Last Row: Harold Leech, Coach Bill Lane.
Missing: Bob Paup.

At the beginning of the season it seemed that sophomore football prospects were rather low. The team looked scrappy enough in practice, but the second-guessers didn't rate them much of a chance due to lack of poundage. However, Coach "Shady" Lane proceeded to drive the squad until, by the first game, he had a formidable eleven.

Hope for a successful season raised after the young Maroons walked off the field with a 15-13 victory over Rock Island.

The team kept up their good work by pounding out a victory over a stubborn Galesburg team, 14-0.

The sophs then invaded Davenport, only to have their winning streak snapped by the hard charging boys from across the river. The final score was: Davenport 18—Moline 0.

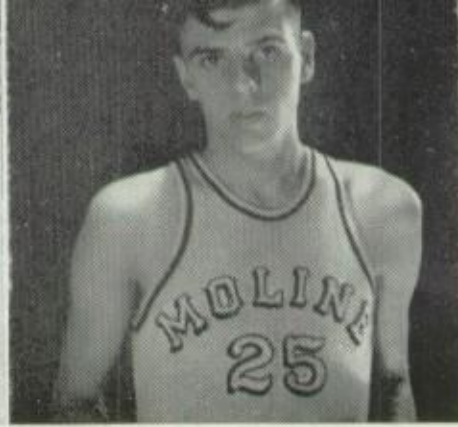

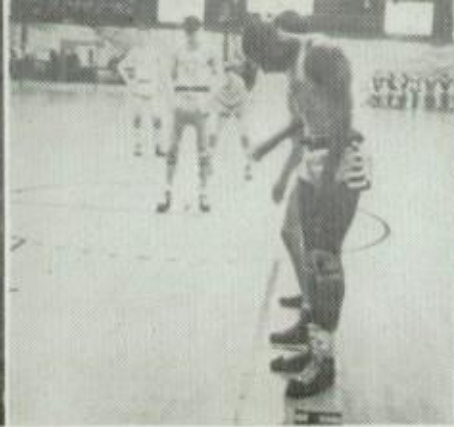

The Moliners took their second setback in as many starts as the Riveters from Kewanee won an extra point victory 7-6.

The team reached its peak against East Moline by downing the Hilltoppers for their most decisive victory of the season. The Maroons tore their opponent's line to shreds as they emerged with a 20-0 victory.

In a repetition of their first game with Rock Island, the Sophs tied in a scoreless, hard-fought contest.

Davenport invaded Moline for the final game of the season on a cold, dreary afternoon. The Blue Devils never stopped their devastating attack until the final gun banged, and then walked off the field with a 26-7 victory over our fighting warriors.

Results of the season were three wins, three losses and one tie game.

Basketball

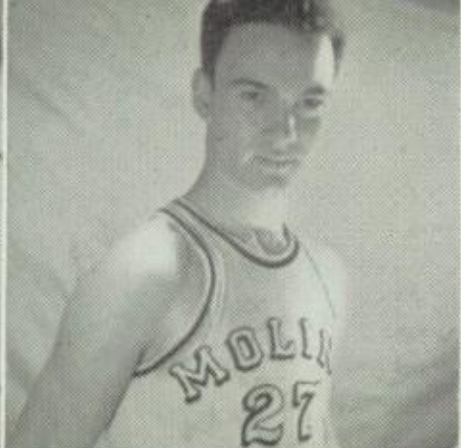

In spite of dreams of a state championship being thrust upon the rocks of defeat by a scrapping, twice-beaten East Moline team, 1938 was an excellent season for Moline's varsity five. The Maroons managed to cop the N. W. Conference title and also win a share of the Quad-City crown.

Displaying a brilliant passing attack, the Maroons opened by downing a hapless Monmouth five 50-20. The Maroons then went to Kewanee where they trounced the Boilermakers 43-28 in their new gym.

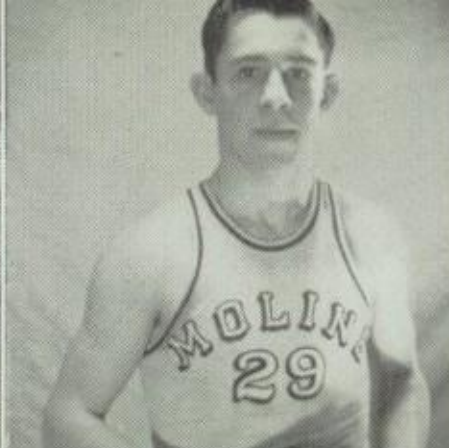

Returning to the field house, the previously undefeated Red Birds of Fulton fell before the devastating Maroon offense. While Anders held Fulton's offense in check the Maroons raced to a 36-16 victory. The victory streak was short-lived, however, for on New Year's Eve the Moline five collapsed before a fast-breaking Davenport team. Bob Anderson's illness coupled with the general ineffectiveness of the team, resulted in a 42-24 revenge defeat. Regaining their winning ways, Moline overcame a speedy Rock Island five 35-32 in the field house. This game marked the appearance of Clarence Warren to Moline basketball immortals as he scored 19 points to begin a scoring spree that gave him the Northwestern Conference scoring title. But disaster struck again as the Maroons fell before Rockford 42-30. Although battling the powerful Rabs evenly for three quarters, a torrid stretch drive of 22 points proved to be too much.

Embarking on a nine game winning streak, the Maroons copped their fourth and fifth North West Conference victories by downing East Moline 34-27 and Galesburg 24-22. The East Moline battle was a see-saw affair, with the Maroons finally managing to outlast the Orangemen. The tilt at Galesburg was a nip and tuck battle as Moline emerged victorious after piling up a safe margin in the first half.

Orion proved quite a scare as they scored with reckless abandon to lead Moline at the half. Leading a second half rally, Ed Lindley, with six consecutive baskets in a few minutes, paced the Maroons to a victory.

Almost upsetting the league-leaders, Monmouth forced the Maroons into an over-time fight. However, in the extra period the Maroons found themselves to run up ten points and take a 34-26 victory. The Blue and White cagers of Quincy also fell before Moline, toppling 38-22 as the team appeared to reach a late-season peak.

Rock Island again was defeated 40-25, and sweet revenge was attained when the boys snapped the Davenport sixteen game winning streak by trouncing the Blue Devils 40-30 before a crowd of 5,000.

East Moline was next humiliated 40-13 in the Hill-topper gym before a capacity house. The Maroons, however, were riding for a fall, meeting defeat at the hands of an admittedly inferior Quincy team, 32-28, after a small-pox scare threatened to postpone the game. Returning to the field house, the team trounced Galesburg decisively 30-20 as they prepared to enter tournament play.

Drawn against a classy Port Byron team in the first round of the tournament, the Maroons, led by Warren's 19 points, managed to defeat the Two-River champions 57-26 by playing first class ball. But the bubble finally burst. Beaten by the Maroons 40-13 but a few weeks before, the East Moline Hilltoppers rose to the basketball heights as they played superb ball to down a confused and bewildered Moline team 29-19. Featuring a lightning fast break and impenetrable defense, the Orangemen scored frequently to lead 16-5 at the half, but their frantic efforts proved futile. In the championship consolation tilt the Maroons downed Orion 44-20, but it was only an after climax. Moline had had a record—five consecutive state tournaments—in its grasp and had lost it.

Losing but two of their fifteen scheduled games, the Maroon Sophomores completed their 1938 season by copping the Quad-City championship and tying East Moline for the Northwest Conference title. Under the expert tutelage of Coach Roger Potter, the Sophs displayed such quantity and quality of talent that Moline cage hopes look exceedingly bright for the next two years.

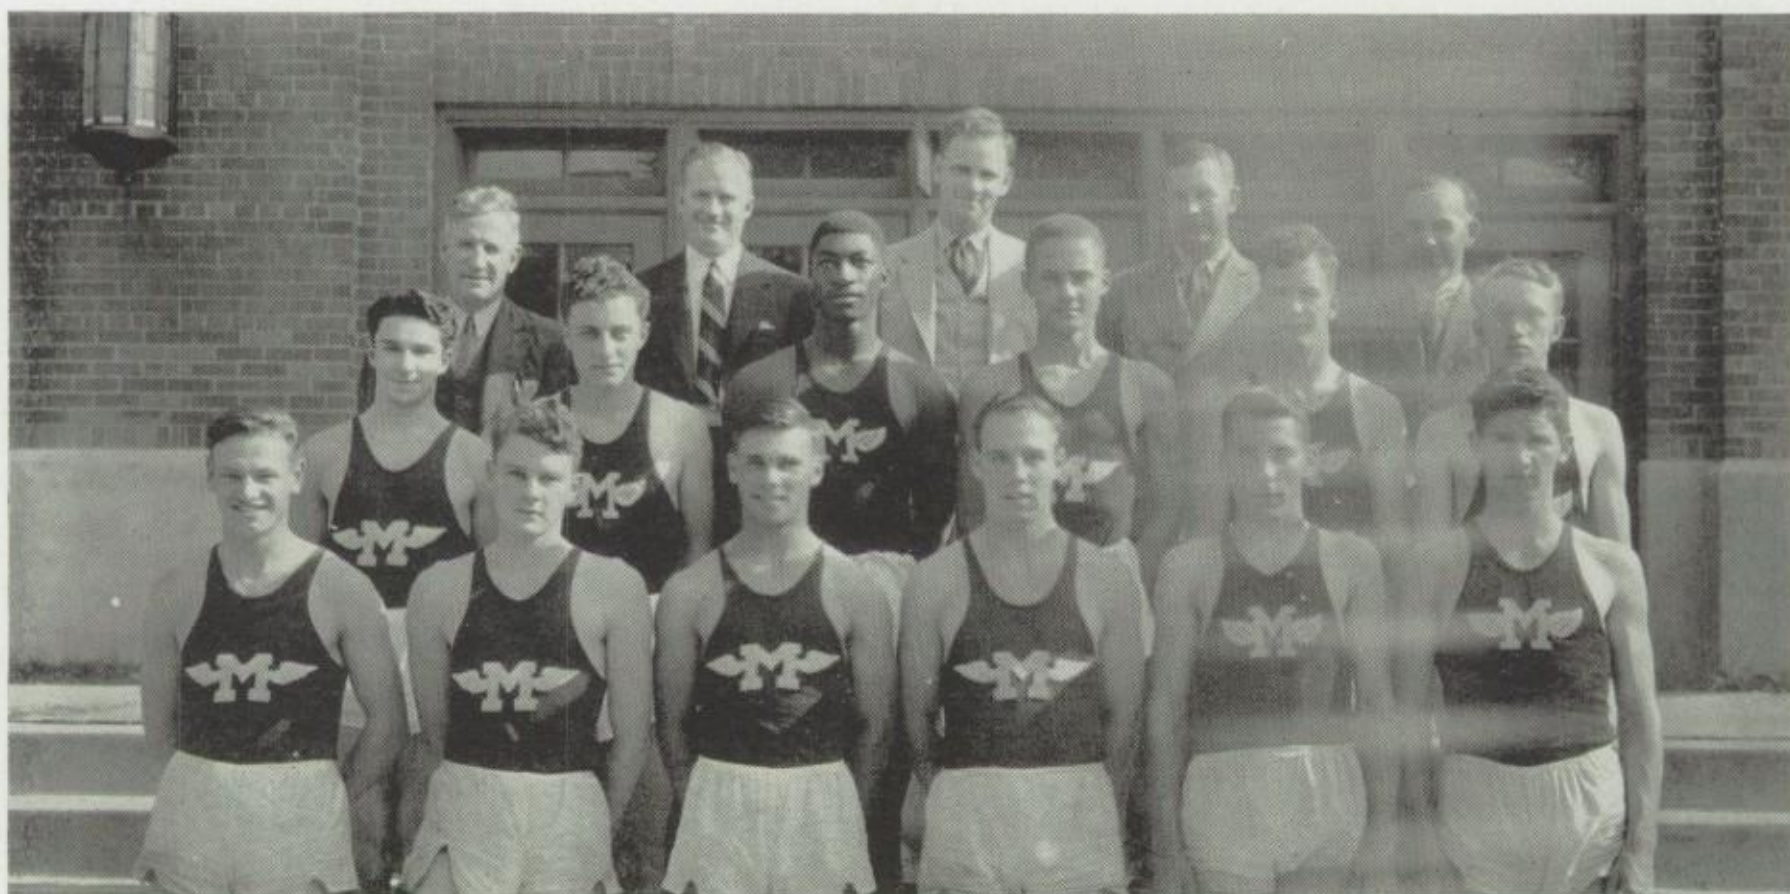

The Sophs opened strongly to down Monmouth 39-19, but traveled to Kewanee and met defeat, 24-23. Fulton and Davenport were both submerged but Rock Island took the Maroon's measure, 31-24. After downing East Moline, the underclassmen began to hit their peak by running away with Galesburg, 32-8.

The Sherrard and Port Byron varsities were both beaten decisively, and Monmouth again dropped before the fast moving Maroons. Both early defeats were then avenged; Kewanee falling 29-17, and Rock Island toppling by the score of 44-20.

The Sophs again took the measure of the Young Blue Devils and the Northwest Conference co-champs were finally beaten after the Maroons came from behind several times in the tightly-packed Hilltopper gym.

A review of the 1937 track season is a review of the stellar performances of Alphonse "Flip" Anders. "The Moline Express" earned distinction of running faster than any other high school athlete in the history of this area. (He was clocked doing the century in nine eight twice in actual competition). His dual victories in the one hundred and two-twenty yard dashes climaxed the season by placing Moline sixth in the state meet at Champaign, the highest the Maroons have finished in recent years.

Anders anchored the record breaking relay team composed of Stowell Masengarb, Cliff Peterson, Archie Fiems, and Anders. The Flipper demonstrated his versatility in the dual meet with Rock Island when he established a record of 22 feet and six and one-half inches in the broad jump. The team was co-captained by "Pus" Masengarb, galloper on the half mile relay and weight man, and Archie Fiems, sprinter.

Moline continued its good fortune in athletics as the thinly clads placed second in the Quad-City meet, Northwest Conference meet, Davenport Relays, Bradford Relays, and third in the Geneseo Relays. Eight Moliners paced the Plows to the Black Hawk district title and the trip down state.

VOLLEYBALL

On April 5, the dust was blown off the volleyballs, nets were stretched across the floor, and 24 girls enthusiastically began the volleyball season. There were no special captains. Different girls were chosen to act as captains at every practice.

Many exciting games were played in the gym, and some girls put so much energy behind their serves that they did such things as to break blood vessels in their arms and bruise their legs. Nevertheless everyone had the "time of their lives".

BASEBALL

Baseball! A sport enjoyed by big leagues and girls of Moline High School. In September, 1937, the baseball season opened. Two captains, Jeanne Miller and Anna Mae Peterson were chosen. Teams were lined up and the "big leagues" went into action under beams of the M.H.S. gym every Monday night after school and knocked "sizzling" home runs into the balcony (better known as the track).

No tournament was held, but the two teams had many happy hours "fighting" each other.

Girls' Basketball

SENIORS

Seniors must live up to their title. This year, however, they were almost pulled off their pedestal by the Juniors in the basketball tournament in February. Captained by Helen Zawada, who scored 22 points in an exhibition game, they defeated the Sophs 30-19 and captured the title by whipping the Juniors 23-22.

JUNIORS

Monday after school was the "special night" for the Juniors in basketball. They really got down to business and concocted several plays that almost upset the Seniors. The Juniors defeated the Sophs 30-23 and were defeated by the Seniors 23-22. The captain of the Junior team was Jane Skalsky.

SOPHOMORES

After practicing hard every Thursday for several weeks, the Sophomores put up a good fight in the basketball tournament held Feb. 21, 22, and 23. Although they fought hard they were defeated by both the Juniors and the Seniors. The team was captained by Marilyn Rossiter.

Back Row: DeFraties, Brown, Tillberg.

Girls' Tennis

Three cheers for the girls on the M.H.S. tennis team! They not only pulled themselves out of bed at 5 o'clock several mornings to practice, but they also brought fame to our school by winning places in the N.W.C. tournament at Kewanee. Jane Brown and Halcyon DeFraties won 2nd place in doubles and Marilyn Tillberg won first place in singles.

The team also managed to rank 3rd in the Quad-City Tournament.

Intramural Basketball

Featuring the inauguration of a new system of dividing the players into under-class and senior groups with intra-group competition and a play-off, intramural basketball completed a hotly contested tournament with Bob Massey's team copping the title.

In the championship finals Hansen took an early lead, but the height and stamina of Massey's team proved too much as the senior champions triumphed 29 to 17 in a hard fought battle.

Choral Club

The Choral Club displayed its versatility with its remarkable repertoire ranging from "Heigh Ho" (Miss Dunlap finally broke down) to Gounod's "Sanctus", from the St. Cecilian Mass. The singing season was climaxed with a huge songfest given at the Field House in conjunction with the two Junior High schools.

The Club consists of a select group of the best singers in High School, chosen by Miss Dunlap from the glee clubs and by tryouts.

Midway in the year the operetta was presented in which the Club members took the leads. The Choral Club formed a nucleus for the Vesper Service, a new venture attempted by songsters of M.H.S. Other appearances were made at the Congregational Church, Radio Station W.H.B.F., and Baccalaureate.

Archery Club

The popular archery club is a comparatively new organization, having been founded in 1935. The members of this club are students interested in the noble art of bow and arrow skill and make fine attempts at handling the modern weapons of sport properly.

Under the supervision and tutelage of Mr. Jones, the enthusiasts learned all about the history and origin of the bow and arrow, its uses, the targets, and the different types.

The club meets on Wednesday afternoons in the gym and is led by Art Erickson, Jack Kidd and Margaret Mengel, who are president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively.

The sponsor, adviser, tutor, transporter, and custodian of the arms is Mr. Truman N. Jones.

Fellowship Club

Eat, drink and be merry!—is the cry that is absorbed by the ceiling of the cafeteria on a Wednesday night of every month when the male-men of the Senior class have a jam-session. This spirit is a prerequisite if you intend to have a good time at Fellowship.

When the silverware is collected, counted—and found missing—the fellows settle down to a fascinating prelim, the business meeting. Then suppressing all jocular remarks and prattle the final tilt, the speaker, is presented and harrassed to his corner.

The club was piloted by Mr. Eckblad and the officers elected were: Curt Johnson, Earl Anderson, Jack Luchsinger, and "Boom" Stoechr.

The outstanding feature at school this year was the novel and unique "Fellowship Presents", a variety show.

After Dinner Club

Once a month, on Tuesday evenings, the senior girls returned to High School to attend the meeting of the After Dinner Club.

After a brief program, dinner was served in the Cafeteria, followed by a business meeting and the speaker. This year the meetings centered around a Charm School program, including talks on table and party manners, personal habits and coordinate subjects. In February a Mother-Daughter Banquet was given and enjoyed.

The climax of the club came with their production, "Treasure Island", including the whole club in its cast.

Officers: Marianne Kehoe, president; Joyce Carlson, vice-president; and Phyllis Reaber, secretary-treasurer.

Home Economics Club

The popularity of the Home Economics Club has grown so rapidly during its few years of existence that the membership is now at its capacity.

The meetings, three a semester, pertain not only to cooking and sewing, but have also social and recreational value.

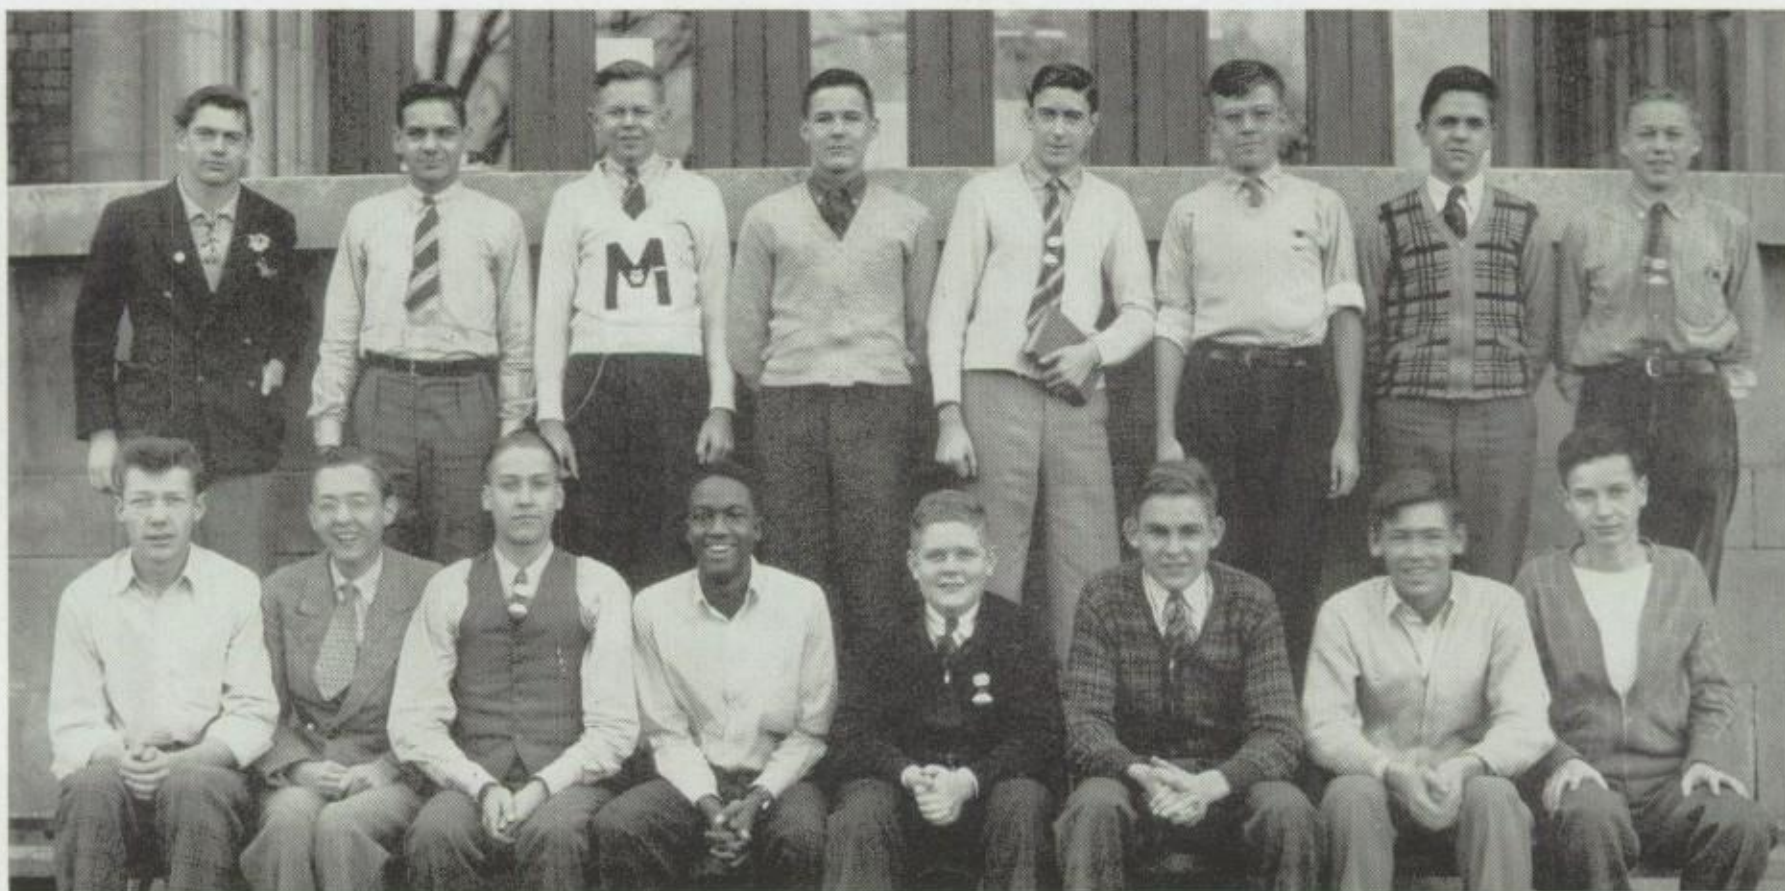

The first semester an important project was a candy sale at the Field House.

The second semester featured a tea for the Mothers of the members. The many garments and various articles made by the girls were on display, while the refreshments served testified to the culinary skill of the hostesses.

Officers: June Sellers, president; Alice Ramsden, secretary.

Sponsors: Miss Pass, Miss Vinton and Miss Adams.

First Row: Paul, Parkman, Landau, Lanier, Morris, Dale Anderson, Erickson, Brissey.

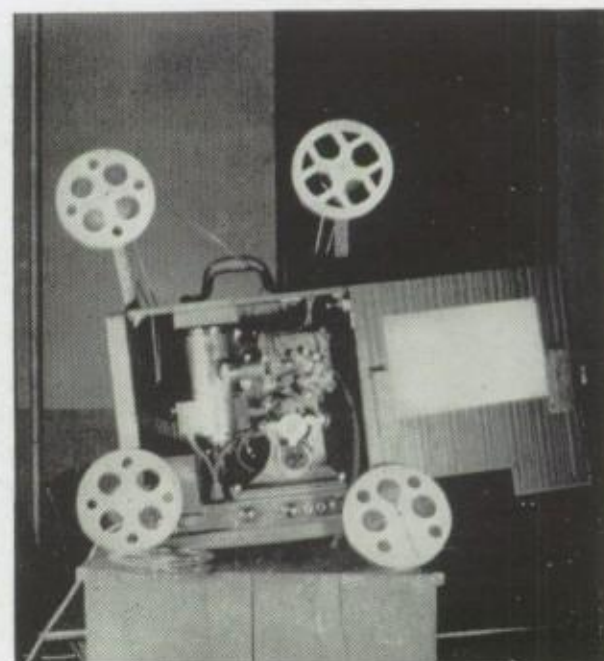

Second Row: Gordon, Ecklund, Gerald Larson, Parks, Downing, Braumiller, Zahn, Burhgrave.

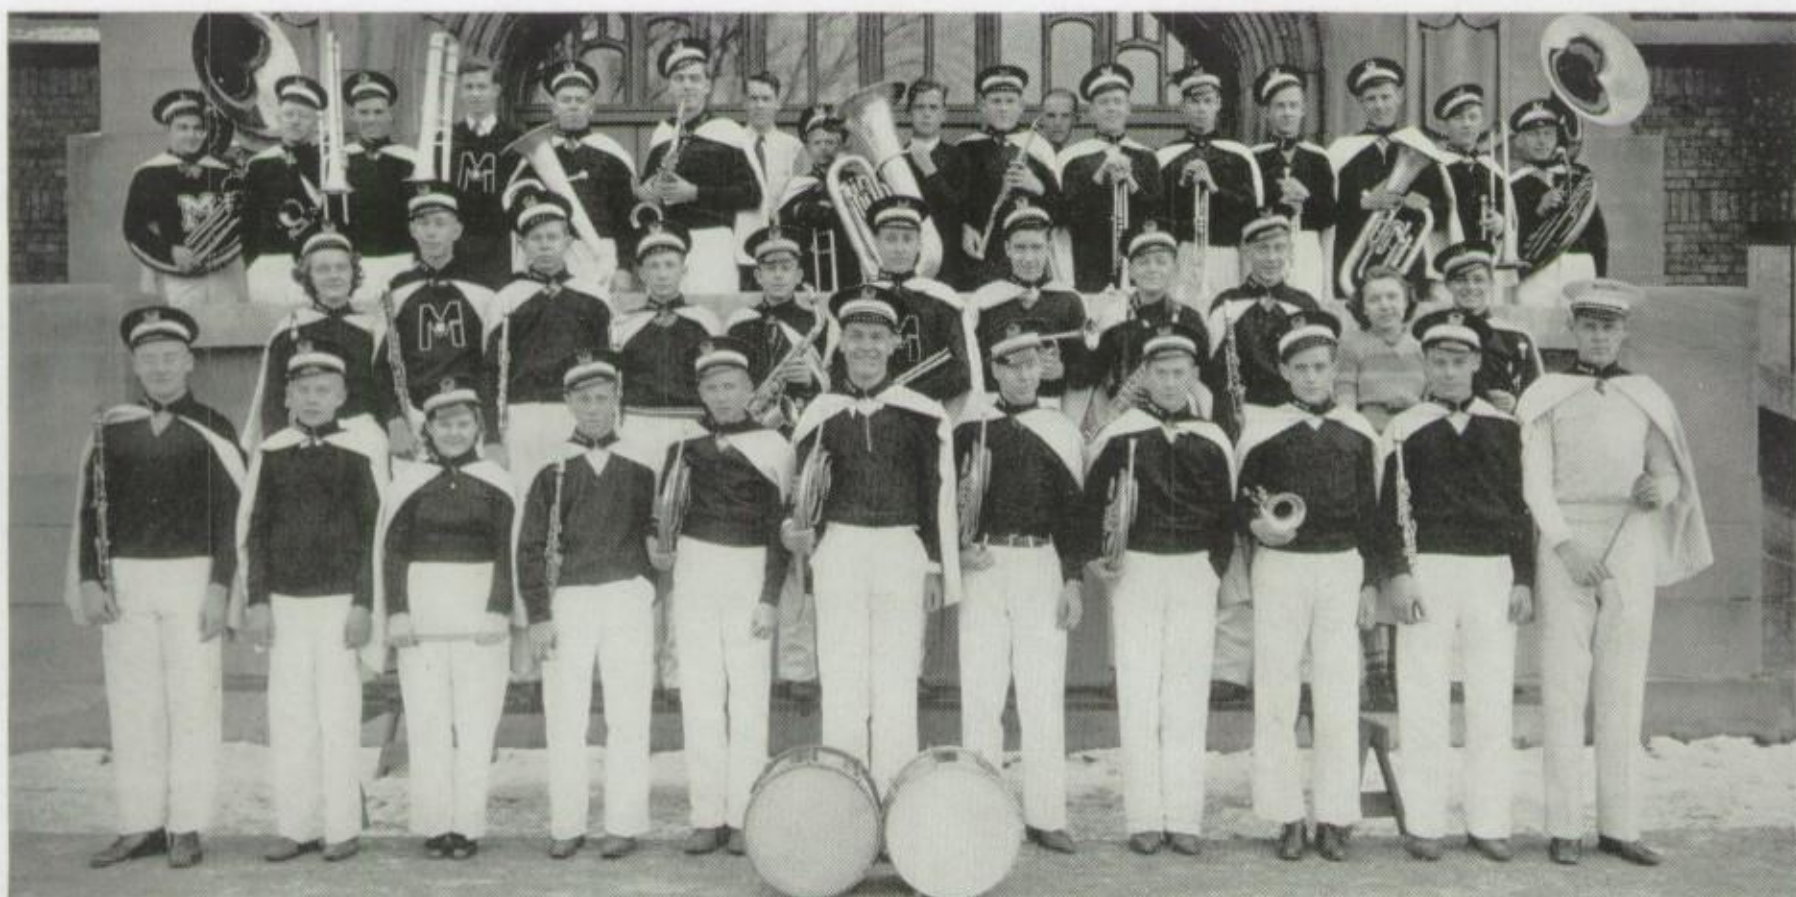

Visual Education Club

This club consists of senior, junior, and sophomore boys who are given instruction in operating the film and slide projectors, and in the repairing of broken films. These fellows run the machines during their free periods for the science, social study and other classes which give slides or films.

Practically every operator has some unfortunate happening during his career. This gives the fellows good training in what to do in cases where time is short and responsibility is great.

Chief flunky of this group is Bob Paul, who takes care of all incoming and outgoing films, repairs them, and keeps an eye on the machines. The adviser is Mr. Dolph Lain.

First Row: Zobrist, Malmberg, Anna Peterson, Carmen, Ecker, Bill Anderson, Swenson, Brasmer, Cook, Ekdahl, Mr. Youngdahl.
 Second Row: Bjorndahl, Nail, Gerald Larson, Gustafson, Cooper, Landau, Downing, Wellnitz, Don Scott, Helen Scott, Erbstein.

The Band

The high school band, composed of forty-five members, is made up from the students who got their start in the Central and John Deere Junior High School Bands. This band is not only a parade band—playing at football and basketball games—but also a concert band, presenting a yearly concert in May. This year the concert's highlights were a trumpet trio, a baritone solo, and a trombone trio. One of the more difficult numbers was "Ariane" by Boyer.

Mr. Youngdahl, the director, introduced the playing of popular numbers this year. Next year he promises to introduce girl drum majors (at the present time being instructed) and maybe some new instruments.

 Second Row: Logan, Genz, Harold Johnson, Mr. Barnett, Pauline Marks, Thatcher, Davis, Gearld Wells, Velmar Gustafson, Fryxell.

The Orchestra

Twice a week the twenty-five members of the orchestra assembled in the gym of Central Junior High School and practiced.

They played for the various dramatic productions of the school throughout the year, as well as for commencement. At the football "M" Men's Day banquet, and at the basketball banquet, the orchestra furnished the music. For these programs a small group played, selected from the regular orchestra, usually consisting of the older players.

Mr. Barnett is the competent leader, and the group enjoyed a successful year. This year a greater stress was put on wood winds. The result was the playing of more popular pieces.

Civics Club

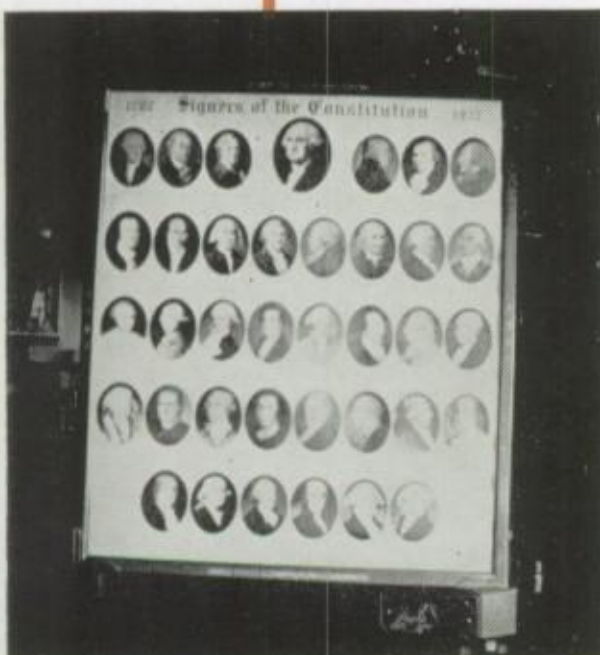

Political opinions discussed, argued, and debated; speakers; and refreshments completed an evening's Civics Club meeting. With only two meetings a semester the club was always amply attended by most of the 12B History and 12A Civics students.

At the first meeting, Chester Thompson, our United States representative to Congress, talked on government. Reverend Axel Pearson gave an interesting talk at the next meeting.

The second semester the Civics Club supervised a vote in the classes for the spring primary, and also had the Rev. W. R. Hodgson for a speaker.

Officers: Jack Luchsinger, president; Marjorie Benell, vice-president; Elsie Flick, secretary.

Dramatic Club

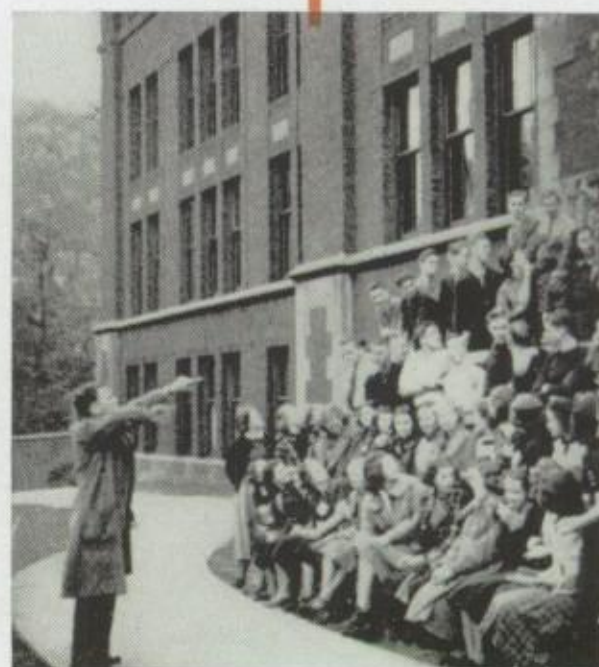

Students interested in dramatics or an evening's entertainment join the Dramatic Club. The ninety members of this organization are divided up into committees and each has a part in the production of their play. A three-act play is given for the public once a year. This year Till & Bill (see page 64) took "Intimate Strangers" on to greater glory.

For the first time in recent years an all school dance was successful. It was sponsored by the Dramatic Club.

Besides giving a cup to the best actor who is graduating, the club presented one for its own plays.

Officers: Tillberg, Rainey, Wessel, and Benell.

Sponsors: Garst, Toyne, Rice, Miller, and Hendee.

First Row: Hallgren, Richeson, Taylor, Sands, Trevor, Lehne, Wallick, Butters, Bennington, Fryxell, Burns, Roseberg, Patch.

 Third Row: Fuller, Gordon, Pierson, Brissey, Burke, Nordquist, Zuhn, Bjurstrom, Wemmer, Holt.

Usher Club

The efficient service of the Usher Club proved very valuable to the school at the various dramatic productions, athletic contests, and other activities in the High School curriculum.

The club bought new badges this year, after selling tags to the students. After four years of service, there are now twenty-five regular ushers, eight alternates, and four on the reserve list. At the various meetings the members received instructions, and after that each person was responsible for his or her own work.

Officers: Jerry Burke, president and head usher; Bill Nordquist, vice-president and assistant head usher; Henry Pierson, secretary.

Girls' Hi-Y

An important part of every girl's high school life is the Hi-Y organization. The aim of the club is to give every girl an opportunity to take an active part. A journey around the world proved very interesting, travel talks, book reviews, and social discussions were other subjects.

A program of social service was carried out, with the gifts of books, magazines and baskets and a Christmas program was given at the East Moline State Hospital.

Officers: Sara Mae Swenson, president; Marjorie Benell, vice-president; Marvel Robbins, and Virginia Lane, secretaries; Elsa Pierson, treasurer.

Sponsor: Miss Fisher, Mrs. Crakes, Mrs. Crabb, Mrs. Marvin, Miss Stacy, and Miss Spencer.

 Second Row: Day, Beitel, Lincoln, Jodar, Stanley, Blackwell, Larson, Faust, Mr. Steffanson.

Senior Hi-Y

The Senior Hi-Y is an organization of Senior boys sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. This exclusive organization has a limited membership of thirty fellows who meet every Tuesday evening. They have the usual business meeting with a program following. Sometimes a discussion on everything from how to act on a date to the Darwinian theory of evolution takes place and sometimes movies or a speaker. A few of the speakers were Dr. C. C. Ellis, Dean Wald, and Dr. Albright. Monthly swims and feeds add to the interest, also.

This club in cooperation with the Junior and Girls' Hi-Y's sponsored the popular Saturday-night club.

Officers: Dick Johnson, Will Larson, Jack Luchsinger, and Wink Day.

Adviser: Morrie Steffanson.

Standing: Ted Sterrett, Jack Streed.

Sitting: Charles Hoff, Bill Burgess, George Kirk, Tom Trevor, Dwight Swanson, Henry Pierson, John Wahlstrand, Bernard Johnson, Manly Graflund.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y composed entirely of junior fellows. They meet every Monday at the "Y" and hold meetings that are both interesting and helpful. They have chosen such topics as "School Problems", "Boy and Girl" problems and "Behavior".

The big meeting is the last one of each month when there is a big feed. Each fellow "chips in" and a great variety of food is brought with little expense to any individual.

The officers are looking forward to and planning for the national "Y" convention which is to be held in June. They are working hard to have a part in the convention.

The officers are: John Wahlstrand, George Kirk, and Tom Trevor.

The sponsor is Mr. C. R. Wright.

First Row: Anna Peterson, Miller, Gilroy, Kuehnel, Thomas, Haubiel, Veva Anderson, Phyllis Reaber, Frederick, Wallick, Marion Anderson, Allmandinger, Tunncliff, Zawada, Bloom.
 Second Row: Pederson, Abrahamson, Bjorndahl, Flick, VanWinkle, Magnuson, Streater, Markovitch, Lethin, Erickson, Vinar, Arline Swanson, Anders.

 Fourth Row: Lemaster, Wright, Kanoff, Stoelting, Thorngren, DeFraties, Bengston, Lois Johnson, Helen Peterson.

G. A. A.

With baseball, basketball, volleyball, tennis, skating, bowling, bicycling, archery, golfing, swimming, riding, and coasting, the G. A. A. members really kept in condition.

Points are ardently worked for by the girls as awards are made for them. A score of one hundred points wins a class numeral; twelve hundred an "M"; sixteen hundred, a state "I"; and two thousand, a state shield.

This year a Play Day was again enjoyed, with members participating a full day in different sports.

Candy sales took the place of dues this year, one being held in the Cafeteria, the other at the Field House.

Officers: Anita Lethin, president; Rose Kuehnel, vice-president; Jeanne Miller, secretary-treasurer.

Sponsors: Misses McElroy and Duis-deker.

The Boom-Boom yelling led by Bob "Burp" Stoehr certainly inspired the Moliners and helped spur them on to victory this past year. This picture shows the banquet given for all the former high school students who have won monograms in football. Each year a banquet is given and a celebration takes place in honor of these men. Ardent supporters of all the athletics at Moline High School, these men should be thanked for their cooperation and interest. Mainly through their efforts in connection with the "Maroon and White" Association, we received the field house, where all our successful teams train.

DO YOU KNOW—

why some people can receive charge account accommodations in almost every place of business?

It's because their Habits of Pay are prompt.

They appreciate the fact that to ask others to "wait" thirty days for their money, depends on their continuous full payment of their accounts.

Not a few dollars now, or a few dollars one or two months from now, but payment in full every thirty days or according to any agreement they made.

The Second Hundred Years—

To have served the farmers of America for one hundred years in the manufacture and sale of high-quality implements is to have created an obligation extending far into the future. We recognize this obligation and appreciate the privilege of service it affords.

Our pledge, as we pause at the beginning of the second hundred years, is that this obligation will be fulfilled. The confidence of agricultural America, gained by a rigid policy of offering quality equipment at a fair price, is the most cherished possession of the John Deere organization.

M. H. S. ATHLETES ENJOY
AUTOMATIC HOT WATER SERVICE in the shower room

WHY NOT HAVE THE SAME CONVENIENCE AT HOME?

It takes a nice hot shower to top off any kind of a game. In preparing for an evening of Truckin', Susie Q'in', or what have you, a hot bath is equally essential. But there's no fun climbing stairs, lighting a heater, toting a teakettle and waiting for water to get hot.

With an automatic gas water heater you'll "put the Bee" on such annoyances. In their place there will be hot water at the turn of a faucet. Better have the folks try an automatic gas water heater . . . and find out about the reduction of as much as 45% brought about by the New Gas.

M. L. PARKER CO.

Class of 1938

We are proud of your achievements as students!

The educational advantages you have enjoyed were provided at the expense of the community and by the efforts of your parents.

The best repayment or expression of appreciation that you can make will be to make the most of your ability and education by using it for your own improvement and for the betterment of the community and the country in which you live. It was for that purpose that this education was provided for you.

One further thing is expected of you. When you take the places of your parents as citizens of your community and heads of families, you are asked to provide at least as good educational advantages for the children of that future day as have been provided for you.

Remember that free education has not always been free. It was only two or three generations ago that high schools were established against the bitter opposition of selfish, short-sighted interests that advocated education only for the favored few. Those same interests are always ready to destroy or cripple the institution of free public education when the opportunity offers.

The men who founded this government well understood that it could endure only if the citizens who control it are enlightened. John Adams clearly expressed their views when he said: "The whole people must take upon themselves the education of the whole people, and must bear the expense of it."

You are to be congratulated upon your fine school record. May your achievements in later life be equally noteworthy.
